SPEAKER: Are there objections? Hearing none, it is so ordered. Chair recognizes Senator Duis. For what purpose do you rise, Senator?

SENATOR DUIS: Mr. President, I would like to, in addition, to announcing the committee, rules committee meeting at 1:00 today which I think the Clerk probably has, I want to make special note that we announce the fact that those people, the following Senators' rules changes will be heard. Senator Warner, Senator Carpenter, Senator Stull and Senator Syas and I would like very much they'd make note of it and be there or have someone there in their place.

SPEAKER: Any other announcements of committee hearings from the floor?

CLERK: Mr. President (committee hearing read). Notice of committee hearing read. Unanimous consent to have amendment printed (amendment read).

SPEAKER: Any objection? Hearing none, it is so ordered.

CLERK: Unanimous consent amendment read.

SPEAKER: It is so ordered.

CLERK: Mr. President, we have a unanimous consent request to bracket L.B. 206 until March 14th, signed Senator Kennedy. L.B. 206 is on final reading for tomorrow.

SPEAKER: Senator Kennedy is asking unanimous consent to hold L.B. 206 scheduled for final reading tomorrow and the request was to bracket it until when?
